Building Briefs: Innovation Square full

19th October 2009

By Ian Briggs - Deputy Editor

INDUSTRIAL property specialist Gent Visick has secured two deals which sees Innovation Square near Featherstone, West Yorkshire, become fully let.

Acting as sole agent for developer Priority Sites, Leeds-based Gent Visick has introduced Powwow and MasterCraft to the speculatively built complex.

Powwow, a supplier of office water coolers and bottled water, has taken a five year lease on the 8,000 sq ft unit at the site, while MasterCraft, which builds ski, wakeboard and power boats, has signed up for the final 3,000 sq ft unit as the new base for its international parts department.

The 42,950 sq ft complex is fully occupied by a diverse range of tenants including B&Q, Apple Vending and Prestige Pumps.
