

Gent Visick races to donate to Jane's Appeal

A go-karting event held by Gent Visick has raised £800 for local charity Jane's Appeal.

Teams of four took part in a relay-style competition to win the "Gent Visick Karting Cup" at Pole Position Indoor Karting in Leeds.

Gleeds Property was pronounced the winner.

Event organiser Nick Prescott said: "We are delighted that an event that was such great fun to take part in could also raise money to support this worthwhile cause. We wish the charity every success with future fund-raising."

Mike Tomlinson, trustee of Jane's Appeal – which was set up by the late Jane Tomlinson CBE to raise funds for children's and cancer charities – added: "What a great initiative to stage a go-karting competition. Thank you to everyone who supported the event and Jane's Appeal. You can be reassured that the funds raised will be put to very good use."
